

ANNUAL CONFERENCE 2019 AGENDA

Saturday 18th May 2019, 10am – 4pm

Royal Society, 6-9 Carlton House Terrace,
London, SW1Y 5AG

10.00 – 11.00	AGM
11.00 – 11.30	Refreshments
11.30 – 12.00	Psoriasis: Priority Setting Partnership Dr Helen Young, Consultant Dermatologist and Lead Investigator on the Psoriasis Priority Setting Partnership (PSP) reveals the Top 10 Research Priorities for patients, carers and clinicians
12.00 – 12.30	Experiences of living with psoriasis What is it like living with psoriasis? Hear from our three patients about their treatment journeys and experiences of living with psoriasis
12.30 - 13.30	Lunch
13.30 – 14.15	What role can genetics play in future treatment? Professor Jonathan Barker explains the role of genetics in more accurately treating psoriasis, and important findings of the PSORT research project
14.15 – 14.45	Refreshments
14.45 – 15.45	Question Time – the Psoriasis Edition Our panel of experts seek to answer important questions from patients regarding living well with psoriasis / psoriatic arthritis Prof Jonathan Barker, Dr Sandy McBride, Prof Bruce Kirkham and Julia Wheeler
15.45 – 16.00	Closing remarks